PORCELAIN MASTERCLASS

Janette Fry

Porcelain is the clay that many pottery students are apprehensive about given its reputation as a 'difficult' clay to manage. Potter Janette Fry, who is known for her beautiful, whimsical porcelain vessels, will demonstrate the variety of ways in which porcelain can be mastered. She combines throwing, slabbing and handbuilding techniques together with mark making and even tearing the clay to achieve her beautiful forms. This course is suitable for both throwers and handbuilders.
